ABOUT THIS DOCUMENT

This document enables users to search the more than 370 FSIS directives, both public and non-public, simultaneously by title key word(s) or number. It also contains hyperlinks to FSIS directives contained in the user's "Offline_Issuances" file folder located on the local disk (C:) drive. It may be used to directly access Adobe® Acrobat™ portable document format (PDF) copies of directives in the absence of internet connectivity. Please note the contents of the "Offline_Issuances" folder on the user's computer may not represent the most current directive revision or amendment.

Inoperative hyperlinks may be due to functionality issues within the document, reflect that the contents of the "Offline_Issuances" folder have not been synchronized recently, or might indicate that a particular directive has been cancelled. If functionality issues (dead hyperlinks, etc.) are encountered, please contact the author, Aaron J. Lenz, at aaronjlenz@yahoo.com. The most current versions of all directives are available on the public USDA FSIS website:
